REPORTS.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Report No. 1.

Christian education is not denominational bigotry nor sectarian politics. It is education founded upon faith in Christ and His Kingdom, and it selects Christ as the true model of all human development. The church and State are therefore distinguished in their educational ideals and methods by all that separates Christ's Kingdom from Cæsar's empire. This distinction is vital and should be emphasized among our people. This is rendered especially necessary because of the much ado about moral education in secular schools. The difference between morality and Christianity is the difference between moral abstractions, and the atonement of Christ. The first is human theories, and the second is Divine power. The church cannot be satisfied with the so called theories of moral education, but must insist on a faith in Christ that brings salvation. Your Board of Education would, therefore, remind you of the dangers lurking in many of the educational movements and methods of the day.

It is with regret that we note the unjust and unwise appropriations of the State to free higher education. We believe that such a policy is not only unjust, but that it tends to pauperize manhood and produce paternalism. We therefore enter our protest against the appropriations of money for free tuition and other expenses as is done at our State College.

Your Board had before it a communication from the general Board of Education at Nashville, Tennessee, setting forth the purposes and policies of the Board. By the authority given us and under the direction of the general Board we have collected from the Sunday School Board $58.09, being one-half of the surplus remaining from "Children's Day" collections. We recommend that of this amount $25.00 be turned over to the Conference Secretary to meet his clerical expenses and $33.09 be turned over to Wofford College to be added to the Thomas Loan Fund.

We also ask the Board of Finance to apportion to the various charges $440.00, the amount assessed on this Conference by the general Board of Education, and that a new column be added to our conference blanks in which is to be reported all monies collected on this fund, the additional column to be known as General Educational Fund.

We nominate Rev. C. B. Smith as Conference Secretary of education to assist the general Board of Education in carrying forward this work in our Conference.

We are glad to have had with us Dr. W. W. Smith, Secretary of Education, and highly appreciate his private counsel, as well as his public address. We wish to assure him of our co-operation with him in his work.

Wofford College.

We are glad to learn from President Carlisle's Report that the College is in a very prosperous condition. The number of students is gratifying, and the Christian character of the student body is highly commendable. The standard of literary work is kept at a high point. We are pleased to note material improvements which have been and are being made. These improvements have been made by the generous and free gifts of Brother R. L. Coleman. We wish to express to him our high appreciation of his generosity.

The financial report of the Trustees is highly gratifying and shows a wise and economical use of the monies of the College.

We ask that $4,000.00 be assessed for education to be applied to the current expenses of Wofford College.

We nominate the following Trustees: Bishop W. W. Duncan, Rev. S. A. Weber, Rev. G. W. Walker, Rev. W. A. Rogers, Rev. J. Walter Dickson, Rev. J. E. Carlisle, Dr. H. Baer, W. M. Connor, C. G. Dantzler, G. E. Prince, George Cofield, J. K. Jennings and T. B. Stackhouse.

Columbia Female College.

The report of the Board of Trustees shows a gratifying attendance as well as an advance in the curriculum of the college. While we appreciate the necessary repairs to be made and other items of expense to be met, we do not think it wise or necessary to make the assessment of $3,000.00 on the charges, but recommend that the agent of the college take charge of the matter and raise the necessary amount. We ask the support of this Conference in behalf of this institution.

We nominate following Trustees: Rev. A. J. Stokes, Rev. J. A. Clifton, D. D., Rev. T. G. Herbert, Rev. J. B. Traywick, Rev. A. J. Cauthen, Rev. J. W. Daniel, Rev. W. C. Power, R. H. Jennings, Benjamin Greig, George W. Parker, W. J. Murray, J. F. Lyon, W. D. Evans.

We also call the attention of the Conference to the fact that the charter of the Columbia Female College requires that a financial report of the income and expenditures of all monies be made to this Conference, and we insist that the Board of Trustees be required to make this report in accordance with the charter.

Fitting Schools.

We are glad to note the prosperity of the other three schools, namely: Wofford Fitting School, Carlisle Fitting School and Cokesbury Conference School. We commend them to our people. We also ask that the Trustees look into the Cokesbury Conference School and if they think it advisable to raise it to a Fitting School.

We recommend that the Trustees of Wofford College be elected Trustees of these Schools, with the pastor in charge at Cokesbury as ex-officio member of the board of control of the Cokesbury Conference School.

We ask the Conference to raise $700.00 for the Payne and Lane Institutes, and that the Board of Finance be requested to arrange for its collection.

We ask the Bishop to make following appointments:

Dr. S. Landier, President of Williamston Female College.

Dr. J. A. Rice, President of Columbia Female College.

Dr. George W. Walker, President of Payne Institute.

Rev. C. B. Smith, Professor and Agent of Wofford College.

Rev. Marion Dargan, Agent of Columbia Female College.

Rev. L. F. Beaty, assistant to the Editor of Sunday School Literature at Nashville, Tennessee.

Respectfully submitted,

D. R. DUNCAN, Chairman.

JOHN C. KILGO, Secretary.

RESOLUTION.

Resolved, That the preachers be required to render all necessary assistance to the Agent of Columbia Female College in collecting the sum of $2,000.00 required for repairs on the buildings of that institution.

(Signed) H. B. BROWNE.

REPORTS OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

Report No. 1.

We need to magnify the importance of more careful and intelligent Bible study, and the enlarging possibilities of our Sunday School work. The first direct work of the Church undertaken for individual culture and salvation, is committed to the Sunday School. The progress of mental training emphasises more and more the value of first instruction. The Church cannot afford to do less for the training of spirit and conscience. The failure to do this in youth is so often an eternal failure that we are forcibly urged to employ the most efficient means possible for this work, in the day of our greatest opportunity.

In the Sunday School, is provided the open door of usefulness to the largest number of our people who desire to do the nearest and most direct work for the upbuilding of Christ's Kingdom.

Our nearest opportunities are our greatest possibilities.

Our Sunday School workers are too numerous and too intelligent for us to be satisfied with any thing but the use of the most progressive methods and the largest results.

We can and we must provide instruction of the highest order. We must increase our efficiency. We must labor more earnestly for the accomplishment of the mission of the Sunday School to the home, to the Church, and to the Nation.

The manifold capabilities of this department of Church enterprise provides unlimited opportunity to carry on all kinds of training. Here the virtues of temperance can be instilled. Here the grace of liberality can be inculcated, the spirit of missions fostered, and above all acquaintance with the Bible and a saving knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ can be made.

Greater efficiency can be secured by the introduction of the most approved methods of Bible study, by the use of Normal and supplemental Bible studies in advanced classes and teacher's meetings, and by holding District and Annual Conference Sunday School Conference as provided for in the discipline.

The Board offer the following resolutions:

First. Resolved, That the Sunday School Board through its Chairman make strenuous efforts to organize an Annual State Sunday School Conference.

Second. Resolved, That special prominence be given to the Sunday School and Epworth League work in our District Conference, and that a suitable program for the same be prepared by the Presiding Elders.

Report No. 2.

EPWORTH LEAGUES.

We have long recognized the fact that there is a great deal of dormant talent among the young people of our Church, which only needs to be aroused, and directed in proper channels in order that it may become a potent factor to the Church in the accomplishment of her great mission to the world.

We are glad to note, that while in the bounds of the South Carolina Conference there are comparatively few Leagues organized, yet from information received from those charges where they have been faithfully tried, they are filling a long felt want in our Church, and have proven very helpful to the pastors in their work.

No enterprise has ever succeeded where there has not been a determination to overcome difficulties. While we are ready to admit that of necessity it is more difficult to successfully operate Leagues on circuits than in our towns and cities, yet in view of the good that may be accomplished, the fields of usefulness opened as well as the opportunities of social, mental and spiritual development afforded by this institution of the Church, we would urge a more determined and persistent effort on the part of our pastors in the organization of Epworth Leagues in every pastoral charge.

E. T. HODGES, Chairman.

REPORT of the COMMITTEE on BOOKS and PERIODICALS.

We could hardly overestimate the value of our Church literature as an agent in the upbuilding of the Church and in the salvation of men. Mr. Wesley wrote much and used the press freely, and was assiduous in the matter of circulating religious books and periodicals. His preachers and helpers saw the importance of the work, and devoted much of their time to the distribution of the literature of the Church.

The establishment of Methodism in this country by the fathers was largely due to this fact, and the perpetuity of the Methodist Church depends upon the same fact. The children of the church must be indoctrinated, and our people must be instructed. The fathers and mothers must be persuaded that it is as much their duty, if not more, to supply their children with wholesome food for their minds and spirits as it is to feed and clothe their bodies. They must be made to see that by withholding from their children the necessary means of intellectual and spiritual development, they sin against them and entail upon them an injury which is irremediable. The preachers can accomplish much by teaching the people their duty, and by exhorting them to the performance of the same; but their sermons will prove largely ineffectual unless the people are supplied with good books and periodicals upon which to feed daily. This work must be done! Failure here means failure everywhere. The Church is not alive to her duty in this matter; and because of this, the strain upon her is tremendous. The masses of our people are liable to be "carried about with every wind of doctrine." We must disseminate the Word of God, and the books and periodicals of our Church among our people. We have a great Publishing House which is steadily increasing in power and usefulness. The agents of the Publishing House, Messrs. Barbee & Smith, look upon the Preachers as the natural agents of the Publishing House in the circulation of our books and periodicals, and they earnestly desire their co-operation. The exhibit of the Publishing House, made to the Conference shows that the "total business from all departments" for the year ending March 31st 1894 was ($343,383.43) three hundred and forty-three thousand three hundred and eighty-three dollars and forty-three cents. This exhibit is very encouraging; in view of the great financial pressure. We should thank God and press forward.

We ask the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, First: That we will endeavor to go forward in the matter of supplying our people with our books and periodicals, thereby doing a work of vast importance to the Church in the up-building of our Publishing House and in the salvation and edification of our people.

Resolved, Second: That we will urge our people, as far as possible, to take the Bi-Monthly Review, the Christian Advocate, the Methodist Review of Missions, and specially will we urge them to take the Southern Christian Advocate, a necessary medium of information for South Carolina Methodists.

Resolved, Third: That we will provide our Sunday Schools with catechisms suitable for infants, and specially with a catechism teaching the doctrines of the Church.

C. H. CLYDE,

Secretary.

J. C. CHANDLER,

Chairman.

REPORT OF BOARD OF COLPORTAGE.

The Board of Colportage respectfully submit the following report:

After considering the report which was recommitted, we recommend that no Colporteur be appointed for our Conference for the ensuing year.

G. H. WADDELL, Secretary Board.

BIBLE CAUSE.

The Committee on Bible Cause would respectfully report, recommending the following for adoption by the Conference:

The South Carolina Conference, in view of the great essential work which the American Bible Society is doing for us in the cause of Evangelization both at home and abroad, and our dependence upon it for the translation, printing and circulation of the word of God, heartily respond to the advanced position taken in regard to it by our last General Conference.

And we therefore urge our preachers to carry out in letter and in spirit the provisions now made in our Discipline for presenting the Bible Cause and raising collections for it in all our Churches. To this end we advise that every preacher in charge take pains to acquaint himself thoroughly with the work of the American Bible Society by procuring the necessary literature from the District Superintendent in order that he may intelligently and effectually present this great cause to his people and inspire their love and zeal for it. During the past year, only 42 out of 187 of our charges have sent in contributions to the American Bible Society, and these amount to $180.70.

This we confess is rather a poor exhibit of our zeal in behalf of so worthy a cause, but we hope that hereafter collections will be general and contributious more liberal. We are gratified to learn from the last Annual Report of American Bible Society, that its work has not suffered for lack of funds; but through unprecedented receipts from legacies, the treasury of the Society has been adequately supplied with means to maintain the work in both home and foreign fields. We rejoice to know too that the Scriptures, in whole or in part, have been translated into nearly four hundred dialects and languages. The work of translation is still going on as needed in Missionary fields.

The Society has already circulated over 58,000,000 copies of the Scriptures and is still printing and circulating them at the rate of nearly a million and a half volumes a year. In all these things we give thanks to God, and extend congratulations to the Society. We would especially call attention of all our Ministers and people to the continued efforts of the American Bible Society to supply the Bible to all the children of our land, and its very liberal offer to sell Bibles to such as have none and can read, for one-half the cost of manufacture.

Let our Preachers in Charge enquire how the children of their Sunday Schools are supplied with Bibles and promptly avail themselves of this generous offer by applying to the District Superintendent for the Bibles needed.

We recommend that all our pastors as far as practicable present the Bible Cause and take up collections for it during the month of June, and the collections raised be forwarded at once to Rev. T. H. Law, D. D., District Superintendent, Spartanburg, S. C.

J. F. ANDERSON, Chairman.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

Your Committee beg leave to submit the following report :

We think we may safely assume that the temperance reform is one of the great movements in the Christian world of to-day. Its importance to the social, industrial, political and religious welfare of society can hardly be over-estimated. Its friends have not always worked together—perhaps have not always worked wisely—yet all the signs indicate that the cause is making sure and steady progress. Public opinion is unmistakably opposed to the traffic in intoxicants, and to their use as a beverage; while the drinking customs formerly sanctioned by good society are slowly passing away, and the sentiment in favor of total abstinence is increasing. This sentiment has been created and is sustained and increased by discussion and agitation from a Christian standpoint. An enlightened public conscience must be looked to as the chief support of this cause, for without this legal enactment can have no beneficial effect. Let the Church then unhesitatingly assume her high responsibility as the director of this movement and let it be kept on higher ground than that of any political party or clique. Let temperance literature of a pure and healthful character be scattered broadcast over the land. Let our young people be taught there is danger in the fascinating cup, and be encouraged to form associations among themselves for their protection from this devouring plague and for the rescue of those who have fallen. Let pastors preach and lecture frequently on this subject, and let the excellent law of our Church be kindly but firmly administered. Finally let us as Christians not be discouraged in this work. Let us be true to our traditions and to ourselves, and the day will surely come when we shall see this monster evil of strong drink banished from our land.

Signed in behalf of the Committee.

A. J. STAFFORD, Chairman.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON MINUTES.

Your Committee on Minutes beg leave to submit the following report :

We have examined the accounts of the publishers of the Minutes of last year and find them correct.

The Treasurer's report is as follows :

Received from Charges.....	$380 41
Received from Legal Conference.....	20 00
	$400 41

We nominate Revs. E. O. Watson and S. Lander to edit and publish the Minutes of the Conference, and recommend the publication of four thousand copies.

We further recommend that six hundred dollars be assessed upon the Charges of the Conference for publishing the Minutes of next year.

Respectfully submitted.

B. M. GRIER, Chairman.

REPORT OF PUBLISHING COMMITTEE.

The Publishing Committee of The Southern Christian Advocate beg leave to make the following report:

Our paper has been kept during the year, up to the high standard of excellence that has characterized it in the past. In its able editorial management, and in the fine materials used by Mr. Calvo, the publisher, the paper has merited and won the approval of our people.

The circulation, while not so good as we could desire, still continues to be good.

The royalty account has been audited and found to be correct.

The Committee reminds the Conference that acting under its order, and being duly notified that the joint stock company, organized at the last session of the Conference, would not be prepared to arrange for the publication of the paper, thereupon advertised for bids.

Several bids were received and after careful consideration of the same, that of Col. J. A. Hoyt, of Greenville, S. C., was accepted. A contract, similar to the one under which The Advocate is now published, and in the judgment of your committee better in some of its feature, has been drawn and properly signed.

Under this new contract The Advocate will, after the first day of January, 1895, be for four years published in the City of Greenville, S. C. The publisher is required to give a bond of $3,000.00 for the faithful performance of the contract.

The preachers are pledged to work as agents for the paper in soliciting subscribers and obtaining renewals, for which they are to receive a commission of ten per cent. The publisher is to assume all risks, to bear all expenses, including the salary of the editor, and pay over to the editor each year a royalty of $400.00.

Respectfully submitted,

L. F. BEATY, Chairman.

REPORT ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE JOURNALS.

We have examined the Journals of all the District Conferences, and report as follows:

Orangeburg—This Journal is almost perfect.

Sumter—This Journal is excellent in all respects.

Florence—This Journal is well and neatly kept.

Spartanburg—This Journal is well kept.

Marion—This Journal is excellently kept.

Columbia—This Journal is neat and correct.

Greenville—This Journal is very well kept, but needs a little more carefulness of the Secretary.

Cokesbury—This Journal is neat and well kept in every respect.

Chester—This Journal is well kept with the exception of some erasures and omissions of periods, showing signs of haste.

We are much gratified to see the great improvement in our Journals made since the plan of our annual inspection was adopted, and we earnestly urge our Secretaries to strive to make this work perfect.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON ORPHANAGE.

To the South Carolina Annual Conference:

We, the undersigned committee, appointed by this body to consider the advisability of inaugurating a movement looking to the establishing of an orphanage, or an orphanage and hospital, under the auspices of our Conference, beg leave to recommend the passage by this Conference of the following resolutions:

Resolved 1. That it is inexpedient to undertake now the establishing of said hospital.

2. That we proceed at once to provide for said Orphanage, to be called the "Epworth Orphanage," of the South Carolina Conference.

LAURENS, S. C., November 24, 1894.

REPORT OF THE S. C. CONFERENCE MISSION BOARD.

Report No. 1.

We have closed another year of faithful work on the part of our Domestic Missionaries. The great financial stringency, and actual distress in many sections of our State, render it impossible to measure real success in dollars and cents. We feel grateful, however, that the work has gone on and that as rich, if not richer, spiritual results have been attained.

Camberland Mission, in the city of Charleston has had to struggle hard to make a creditable showing as to salaries and Conference collections. It has done well under the circumstances. The pastor's most conspicuous success the past year has been in the reduction of the large debt upon the parsonage. Cumberland fills a place of great usefulness and deserves our cordial support.

The Work at Port Royal has so far developed that it will not need near so large an appropriation for the coming year. This work was provided for at our last Annual Conference, and has fully justified our confidence in its future.

Reevesville and St. Paul's has done well spiritually the past year, and it is worthy of special mention that, even during this year of financial depression, the collections all around have increased.

Parksville was never in better condition. It will soon, the prospect is, become a self-supporting charge.

At Green Street and Brookland the pastor has done a fine year's work. There has been an increase of the membership, and a small increase of the amount paid on salaries.

Aiken has been efficiently served the past year. There has not been much, if any, growth as measured by columns of figures. The charge, however, fills an unique position, and we have exceptional opportunities of usefulness here in our Master's Kingdom.

The pastor reports the Salters work as one where we are laboring under great material disadvantages. We are toiling with little hope of a return in money, but expecting a rich harvest of souls.

St. Paul, in Greenville city, has had a year of almost phenomenal success. The best commentary upon which statement is that the charge will next year drop out of the list of Missions proper.

Pee Dee is alive and moving on as usual. The people here appreciate and need the care of the Board.

Upper Edisto makes a good report.

Bethel and Duncan has had unusual difficulties the past year. A large mill shut down and necessitated the removal of a great many of our members. The pastor was sick for many long and weary months. But the church abounded in liberality and kindly care for their beloved pastor. The charge makes a report unusually good under the circumstances.

Sunter City Mission. We began here a year ago with next to nothing. The development of the work has been remarkable.

The Wateree Mission reports progress every way, notwithstanding the hard times.

These charges were all continued as Missions, except St. Paul and Reevesville and St. Paul's, which under our rule fall into the class of assisted charges. Newberry City Mission and Rehoboth were established.

We make our report this evening with glad and hopeful hearts.

J. L. STOKES, Secretary.

J. B. TRAYWICK, President.

VI. IN MEMORIAM.

MEMOIRS OF PREACHERS WHO DIED IN 1894]

MINTON A. CONNOLLY.

Minton A. Connolly was born in Caldwell County, N. C., in 1829; joined the South Carolina Conference at Columbia in 1854; traveled on Missions two years, on circuits eighteen years; was a superannuated preacher nineteen years—and died at Kershaw, S. C., January 28th, 1894. This is a short biography, but it tells the long story of an honored, useful and consecrated life. Here is a man for you, a strong, true, noble man. He led an obscure life, and a life marred out of its just proportions by circumstances beyond his complete control; but his was a life of sublime courage and heroic faith. A turbine wheel he, moved and kept in motion by the waters that submerged him. He loved God and loved his brethren. He loved the Church—the Methodist Church: her doctrines her polity, the splendid history of her heroic past. A gallant knight was he, eager for the fight and valiant in it against any foeman worthy of his steel who dared to assail either the doctrines or the economy of our beloved Methodism. We have not had among us in later years a man more competent to state the doctrines of grace from an Arminian standpoint, or more ready to do so if circumstances required it. He was a strong preacher—a very strong preacher. He read and studied good books, and these both strengthened his robust intellect and gave him weapons for offensive and defensive warfare in the interest of our militant Zion. He has gone from among us, and we feel the loss and cherish his memory. “Servant of God well done.”

S. A. WEBER.

JAMES MARION BOYD.

James Marion Boyd was born in Newberry County, S. C., December 1, 1832. He came of Christian and Methodist parents, who reared him for God and the Church. Not strange was it, then, that at the early age of ten years he gave his heart to God. This new birth occurred at Ebenezer Camp-meeting, in Newberry County, Rev. J. H. Zimmerman in charge. It must have been a touching thing to hear the young convert lead, as he did, in prayer at a prayer-meeting soon after. This was but an earnest of his life-long consecration. He was licensed to preach previous to the late war, and looked forward to early entrance into the South Carolina Conference. The war, however, thwarted his plans, and he entered the service of his country in Company D, thirteenth South Carolina Infantry. In the ranks his quiet, unostentatious, consistent piety was a power for good. His company was said to have been the best in the regiment—largely owing, his Colonel declared, to his influence.

After the conflict was over, Brother Boyd served as a Junior supply on the Newberry Circuit. In Cheraw, at the Conference of 1869, he joined our ranks.

Thenceforth the record he made was without exception one of complete devotion and enlarged usefulness. For twelve years after his entrance into the Conference he served but three charges, East Chester, Fairfield and Rock Hill. This tells the story of his success. He was then for one year on Chester Circuit, from which he went to the Marion District. After four years here he served another quadrennium on the Charleston District. Then to Spartanburg District, where just entering upon his fourth year he ceased at once to work and live. He literally died at his post. He was in attendance on the Pacolet Quarterly Conference, some miles from home. Sunday February 25th, 1894, came in with snow and intense cold, and he had to remain at the hospitable home of one of the brethren of the charge. While sitting by the fireside in conversation with the family, without warning, the summons came. But by every token of his life of holy zeal, we are sure it is well with his immortal spirit.

Brother Boyd was a thoughtful, suggestive preacher. He was a diligent, faithful and tender pastor. He was a man of affairs, of sound judgment and business tact. He was one of the best presiding elders we have ever had. He was a man of personal magnetism, winning his way to all hearts and binding his friends to him as with hooks of steel.

To this true man of God and faithful itinerant—

‘We say not a final “Goodnight!”
But in some brighter clime
Will bid him “Goodmorning.”’

J. L. STOKES.

IN MEMORIAM.

Rev. Wesley Leatherwood Pegues—June 22nd, 1818 to July 16th, 1894—January 9th, 1839 to July 16th, 1894. These dates in their order give the beginnings and the endings of a long and useful life. His natural life stretched through a little more than seventy-six years and his ministerial life continued through fifty-five years and six months.

He reached Cheraw, S. C. July 16th, 1894, about 7 o'clock p. m. extremely ill. He was lifted from his buggy to a chair in Dr. Wan-namaker's drug store, where he expired in a few moments. He wandered far and long, but he at last came back and ended his life's journey near the spot where he began it, over three-quarters of a century ago.

He joined the South Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at its session in Cheraw, S. C. January 9th, 1829: in passing, he paused here to lay this holy commission down with his life.

He died with the harness on. He had preached as usual on his circuit, Tradesville, on Sunday, July 16th. The next day he was on his way to visit his children in Marlboro County, when the heavenly messenger met him, and bade him cease to labor and to enter into the "rest that remaineth for the people of God."

Bishop James O. Andrew was presiding when he was received on trial into the Conference, and the same ordained him both deacon and elder.

He was married three times—to Miss Keitt, of Orangeburg, S. C., Mrs. Rodgers, of Charleston, S. C., and Mrs. Sykes, of Timmons ville, S. C. He was a devoted husband and father. In all the relations of life he was true and faithful. While he was the recognized center of the household, yet his rule was so just, considerate and loving, that he commanded the love and esteem of all. It was not hard for him to act the part of a gentleman, for he was born with gentlemanly instincts, which were cultivated in action, and refined by the grace of God.

He was just, gentle, and generous to all his fellows. We knew of no man who was freer from vanity, pride, envy, malice and revenge. His ambition seemed not to have been to be elevated above his brethren nor to outshine them, but to do the best he could. He was ever ready to acknowledge, with undisguised pleasure, capacity, ability, and success in his brethren whom others might consider as his rivals for favor and position. He was a fine representative of nature's nobleman. He was truly pious and felt the power of the Holy Ghost in his soul, which power was constantly evidenced in his life.

He was an earnest promoter of missions, having been a member of the Board of Missions on several occasions. He was one among the few who contributed annually one hundred dollars to the missionary treasury.

He was a good preacher, always dividing rightly the word of truth, giving to each his portion in due season. He was a wise and forceful exhorter, knowing where to speak and what to urge upon his congregation after a sermon. While he had fine traits and excellent ability, he excelled in prayer—as a prince he had power with God. Many were so assisted by his prayers as to be enabled to approach the mercy seat acceptably to the saving of their souls, while he was leading. His prayers at the close of a brother's sermon were remarkable and such as we have never heard excelled. No leading thought of the sermon escaped him, while he was praying the Lord's blessings upon it. Often have we felt after he had prayed in behalf of our sermons, that we could preach them better.

He was faithful and untiring in his work. It was not his habit to neglect or slight any part of his duty as a preacher. In a protracted meeting he was indefatigable, preaching day and night, in rain or sunshine with unabated zeal. Thousands have been brought to Christ though his instrumentality, of whom a large company that have gone on before greet him on the eternal shore.

There are but five of the brethren now living who were members when he joined the Conference and but one of his class, Rev. A. M. Chreitzburg, continues with us.

Our brother has gone from us, and a sense of loneliness comes over us when we think we shall not look upon him again. His body sleeps in the family cemetery at New Hope Church, North Marlboro Circuit.

REV. SAMUEL B. JONES, D. D.

Rev. Samuel Barksdale Jones was born in Charleston, S. C., December 29, 1828, was converted in 1846, graduated from South Carolina Military Academy 1847, entered the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, 1854, and died at the home of his son-in-law, George W. Nichols, Esq., Spartanburg, S. C., September 8th, 1894.

True manhood found its expression in Dr. Jones. It was marked in his physical development. In any gathering of men he would have drawn the eye of the spectator. It was marked in his mental power, and whether he wrote or spoke, whether in counsel or debate, whether in Conference or pulpit, he stood forth a leader among men. It appeared in that decision of character which ever marked his life. It shone especially as it stood related to true manhood in Christ Jesus. There was no place for compromise in him. He must have been the outspoken opponent of Christ or His devoted friend. He chose the latter and meant all that it involved.

It was at the old Charleston camp-ground in 1846, (I think I have heard him say, and he did it with flashing eye and heaving breast) under ministry of Dr. Whiteford Smith, that this purpose was formed. It was not without a struggle. In his heart was bitter enmity toward a fellow student, and he knew that following Christ and love were one and the same thing. The battle was sharp, but when it ended the young cadet had transferred his service to Christ and enlisted for the war. His conversion was immediately followed by his giving a warm embrace to his hitherto bitter foe.

In this same decisive spirit he heard the call to the Gospel ministry. Nor was he disobedient to the heavenly vision. In 1854, he was admitted into the South Carolina Conference. Here as a preacher he took high rank. His sermons will be remembered by those who heard him in his prime, as when he preached on "The Evidences of Christianity" or "The Prodigal Son," or "Christ Our High Priest," as among the most effective sermons which they have heard. And this preaching was done not only when the multitude was before him, but in the little church to a few score of souls.

In his ministry of 39 years, he was four years on Circuits; two on Stations; eleven on Districts; eleven Supernumerary and the remainder in the Cokesbury Conference School, the Spartanburg Female College and the Columbia Female College.

He was a man of excellent judgment and executive ability. These made him a man always needed. His two terms as President of the Columbia Female College, his long service as Presiding Elder, his election to five General Conferences, his services as a Trustee of Wofford College, showed how he was trusted. For let it be written that all of these positions came to him from his brethren. Never have I heard it said that Dr. Jones sought a place. Had not his throat been afflicted he was qualified for any position in the gift of the Church.

He was married in 1848 to Miss Emma, daughter of Bishop Capers. She lived only a few years. Mrs. Lizzie, wife of Dr. Tally, of Sumter, is the only surviving child.

He was again married in 1856 to Miss Charlotte E. Power of Abbeville.

I will not touch upon his domestic life. It made one of those beautiful pictures which touched may be marred.

I come now to speak of the end. Broken in health and needing rest, he resigned, in June, the Presidency of the College and came to our Piedmont region seeking rest and health. But in vain. His work was done. The health giving waters, the skilled physicians, the mountain breezes, and the devoted attention of loved ones, all failed. "You must give me up," he said, "It seems to me that Aunt Susan" (who reared him) "and Emma" (Mrs. E. Carlisle, who had recently died) "are always about me, and I am looking for the call." Speaking to me at Saluda, he said: "It is just as God wills; I would not turn my hand to decide." Later he said: "It is all well. I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to keep that which I have committed unto Him against that day."

When at length he became unconscious of his surroundings, I said: "Doctor do you realize the presence of Jesus?" Immediately and positively he nodded his head. "Any message for the brethren?" He, in reply, spoke a whole sentence but no one could hear him, so feeble was his voice.

As we sang "In the Christians home in glory" his eyes brightened again, and like the old soldier who hears the sound of battle, he seemed to wish to swell the song. That hour I will not forget; the Holy spirit came down upon the little company, the shout of praise was heard. It was as though heaven had come down to greet us. At last on Saturday the end came. He heard the last order of his Lord, "Come up higher," and departed to be with Christ.

WILLIAM TERTIUS CAPERS.

When telegraphic wires flash across the land the news of a beloved minister's death; when newspapers carry the sad fact to the fireside of the people, a thrill of sorrow is experienced by those who knew and loved the honored dead, which finds expression in thoughts, and words, and even tears. Such was the case when it was announced that William Tertius Capers had within two days followed his brother-in-law, Samuel Barksdale Jones, to that "undiscovered country, from whose bourn no traveler returns." The spirit of the one fleeing upon the rays of the rising sun, and of the other upon his setting beams to the palace of the King.

William Capers, the third of this name, was the second son of Bishop Capers, and was born in Milledgeville, Georgia, January 20th, 1825. Most of his early life was spent in Charleston, S. C., where his father was serving the Church as pastor, Presiding Elder, Missionary Secretary, Editor of the Southern Christian Advocate and Bishop. Entering the Charleston College while quite young he was graduated in his eighteenth year. Handsome in person, elegant in manners, quick in his perceptions, affectionate and sympathetic, with a high sense of honor, and overflowing with merriment and generosity, the young graduate gave promise of the future man.

At a Camp-Meeting held near the city of Charleston, he was awakened under a sermon preached by the venerable Dr. Lorick Pearce.

Called of God to the work of the ministry, he was licensed to preach, and in December, 1844 was admitted into the South Carolina Conference. After traveling six years he was located on account of ill health. During this part of his life he was teaching in Sumter District, Greenville, Anderson, and Georgetown. In Georgetown he was employed six years, as principal of the Indigo Society School. At the opening of the war between the States of the North and South, he volunteered and served for some time as a private in the ranks; subsequently he was appointed Chaplain of the 10th South Carolina Regiment, which position he held till failing health necessitated his resignation. Re-admitted into the South Carolina Conference in 1862 he continued to serve the church, chiefly in the cities and towns, of the State, with great acceptability and usefulness till the close of his active ministry. Black Swamp, Greenville, Cokesbury, Camden, Spartanburg, Yorkville, Darlington, Florence, Abbeville, Mars Bluff, Charleston, Columbia, and Georgetown, were the principal fields of his ministerial labors.

He was married twice. In December, 1853, to Miss Fannie Austin, daughter of Dr. Manning Austin, of Greenville, S. C. This lovely young wife was spared to him but a few years. In October, 1866, he was again married, at this time to Miss Sallie Bell, daughter of Mr. Jacob Bell, of Columbia, S. C.

The degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon him by Erskine College.

Not many lives have been so carefully dominated by an impassioned love of "the true, the beautiful and the good" as was that of William Capers. His spirit seems to have fed on Paul's immortal chapters on Charity till his mind and heart like mirrors reflected its heavenly truths.

In the pulpit the love of the Father, the sympathy of Jesus, and the comfort of the Spirit were the themes he delighted to dwell upon. These he preached with naturalness so perfect that to some it seemed affected; with the graces of oratory as unstudied as if he knew nothing of Elocution; and with an enthusiasm and pathos that frequently carried him to the height of eloquence. Naturally a poet, he found exquisite enjoyment in the beauties of Scripture, and the gems of literature. As a pulpit reader he had few superiors. In rendering the lessons, like Ezra, he read "in the Book, in the law of God, distinctly; and gave the sense, so that they understood the reading." He tried to give by voice as well as word God's thoughts to men,

A few years ago an eminent lawyer, who is noted for his eloquence, remarked that the reading of Dr. Capers of Toplady's beautiful hymn beginning "Rock of Ages cleft for me," was so affecting that it had moved him to tears.

Solicitous for souls he was a faithful shepherd of the flocks committed to his care. Nature as well as grace contributed to make him an excellent pastor. A child-like simplicity, a voice and face which revealed his emotions, a ready command of resources, and a hopefulness which always looked to a brighter future;—all these, joined to a high ideal of Christian character, and a flaming desire to give peace and comfort to bleeding hearts, made his presence a benediction in the chamber of sickness and the house of mourning.

In social and domestic life he was peculiarly happy. Bright, graceful, and cheerful, his urbanity made him charming at home, and a welcome guest in every gathering of friends. Unaffected and sympathetic in the homes of the poor, none were ever embarrassed at his presence. At ease amongst the cultured and the rich, his company was sought and he was universally admired. Affectionate, he was considerate and kind. Meek, he never thought of himself as highly as he ought. Contented, he neither murmured nor complained. Unselfish, he sought the happiness of others more than his own. Benevolent he gave beyond his means. Sincere, he was never suspicious. True, he was faithful to his engagements and friends. Honest, he owed no man anything. Magnanimous, he was above all meanness. With a noble self-respect, he never thrust himself forward, nor sought position. All honors which came to him came freely. Indeed, there was in his character, such a galaxy of virtue as to rank him amongst the noblest of men and the purest of Christ's followers.

Like most Methodist preachers who have consecrated their lives to the itinerant ministry, and like his Lord and Master, he was poor. The small amount paid by the Churches, for ministerial support, was barely sufficient to furnish the necessities of life, and left nothing to be laid up for an evil day, or the dreariness of age. The hour most dreaded by the faithful itinerant came upon him at the Charleston Conference in '92. He was superannuated. With a pale face but a brave heart he met it; and in a few touching words to the Conference, he bade farewell to his life work. What was before him? Where was there a shelter for his beloved wife and himself? Whence was to come their daily bread? He did not know but he did not fear. Committing himself and the dear companion of his life to God, he went forth; and God, true to His promise, led him by a way he had not known.

Columbia was chosen as his future home. Here the disease from which he had so long suffered made rapid progress. Periodical attacks of internal pain wasted his body but failed to affect his spirit. His faith, hope, love, joy, and habitual cheerfulness came forth from these terrific attacks as the shining of stars after the passage of the storm. On his last birthday the following entry was made in his note book:

"In my seventieth year let my heart say:
 "'Tis Jesus the first and the last,
Whose Spirit shall guide me safe home;
 I'll praise Him for all that is past,
And trust Him for all that's to come.'"

With the hope that the bracing air of the up-country might prove beneficial, he and his devoted wife went to Greenville for the Summer. It soon became evident, however, that no permanent relief could be expected, and that the time of his departure was at hand.

His sufferings were intense. "These last years!" says that one who waited upon him so lovingly, and whose heart is now hungry "for the touch of a vanished hand, and the sound of a voice that is still;"—"These last years!" How can I express the wonderful heroism, patience, forgetfulness of self, unbroken cheerfulness, gratitude, and abounding love of these last years of united suffering." The Gospel was his theme; it was a blessed lesson to witness the willingness with which he took day by day, the descending steps to the stairs of death.

Dr. Pate, Pastor the Methodist Church in Greenville, was with him in his last sickness, and in a communication to the Southern Christian Advocate, says; "While he lay slowly dying on his Cross of racking pains, the angels ministered unto him, and the heavens opened to his eyes. Monday, Sept. 10th came. As the sun gradually sank in the Western sky, and the shadows lengthened on Paris Mountain, there was the hush of death about his couch. A few minutes later there was a whisper, "He is gone!" Yes, gone to bask forever amidst the dazzling glories of eternal life. His body sleeps near that of his father in the City of Columbia. His soul is mingling with the redeemed in glory."

Brought up in a Southern home, where the fairest types of a Christian character were before him every day; surrounded by the culture and refinement of as pure a civilization as ever adorned any section of this continent, William Tertius Capers may have been spared in the providence of God to come down through scenes of blood and trial to this evening of the century, that the later born sons of the Church and State might have a noble example of the piety and intelligence, courtesy, generosity of the cultured classes of the days that are dead.

Others

As Follows:

TO ANY MINISTER:

Who will send us a certificate from any Regular Buggy Dealer, to the effect that he (the Minister) has bought during the year 1895, a vehicle made by us, we will send our check for the sum of Five Dollars.

TO ANY OFFICIAL IN THE CHURCH:

Who will send us a certificate from any Regular Buggy Dealer to the effect that he (the Official) has bought during the year 1895, a vehicle made by us, we will send our check for Two Dollars and Fifty Cents.

This offer is made in good faith and will be carried out. No person will be allowed to participate except those addressed. The offer is made with a view of creating a demand for our work, and hence force the dealer to buy it and keep it in stock. Go to your nearest town and call on the leading dealers and insist on having nothing but the "ROCK HILL" Buggy. If they do not handle it, get them to order for you. We will send the check as stated above on receipt of evidence that you have bought the Buggy, provided you will state that the seeing of this advertisement induced you to make the purchase. If you should accidentally buy a vehicle of our make and afterwards see this offer, you will not be entitled to the above reward.
